 Introduction ***

This Astrological Child Report has been designed as a guide for Drew's parents, with a special commitment: to help with Drew's growth and cultural upbringing, to emphasize and strengthen her assets, and to alert the parents to mistakes or possible problems that Drew could face in her life.

Chapter 1 describes Drew the way she really is (position of the Sun), and the way her personality is expressed (Ascendant sign). Chapters 2 and 3 describe the influences linked to her mother and father respectively, which DOES NOT mean a description of their personalities, but the way Drew sees them, experiences them, and which characteristics she takes from each one. In the astrological chart of a brother or sister, the description of parents could be different due to the individual's perspective. Chapter 4 completes the sequence of the description of Drew's temperament, focusing her mind, her attitude toward education, and her intellectual capacity.

Chapter 5 describes Drew's destiny, her vocation, her profession, and the probability of success in the material world. In order to get an appropriate view of Drew's vocational possibilities, it will be necessary to combine what is in this chapter plus what is in Chapter 1 and any other relevant information in the report.

Chapter 6 analyzes the conditions of Drew's health; some tendencies or possibilities to physical diseases are mentioned, which DOES NOT mean that Drew is going to suffer from them, one by one. It does mean that those are her weak points and she is inclined to those possibilities. As a complement, some recommendations for Drew to have better nutrition are mentioned. PLEASE CONSULT A PHYSICIAN REGARDING ANY PHYSICAL PROBLEMS THAT YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE!!! FOLLOW YOUR PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE AND ANY MEDICATION OR THERAPY THAT HE/SHE RECOMMENDS!!! ASTROLOGY SHOULD NEVER BE USED AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR PROFESSIONAL MEDICAL ATTENTION!!!

Finally, Chapter 7 describes the astrological influence of the outer planets which affect all the children who were born in the same period of years, producing common ideas and behaviors and subsequent generational characteristics.

It is probable that you may find some contradictions in the report; this is because some planets may be beneficial in a certain area of life while other planets may be less helpful or even harmful. This means that Drew may have both positive and negative experiences in the same area. You need to draw on your intuition and common sense to come to your own conclusions. But remember that every child, no matter the sign he/she was born in, needs LOVE in order to grow up in the right way.

 Chapter 1 *****

General description of the child: essential nature and personality. Physical body and childhood.

Sun in Pisces:

The child of Pisces is extremely sensitive, intuitive and affectionate. She prefers to live in a world of fantasy, without timetables or routines. She eats only when she is hungry; she sleeps when she is sleepy; she plays when she feels inspired. Her attitude is reasonable but her hunger, sleep and play patterns change day by day. The best way to teach her to be disciplined is with love. She is extremely emotional, and she will change her attitude if she feels she is hurting her parents with her behavior. The adult world frightens her, and that is why she prefers to take refuge in her own world of fantasies. To avoid developing this innate escapist attitude, it is very important to assist and support her. She has extraordinary intuition, and she will sometimes surprise you with dreams and visions which then become reality. She perceives, but does not understand, everything that is happening around her. It is important not to argue (this is especially for her parents) in front of her, because she could feel that she is the cause. Her extreme sensitivity makes her feel the financial or domestic tensions. A good way to help her is by taking her to places close to nature. Her energy is renewed when she walks in the park, plays or stays at the beach, or just has fun in the backyard studying insects. It is important to let her have a dog or a cat. If she does not have one, she will create a pet within her imagination. Her solitude must be respected; she travels very far with her mind. Her inspiration makes her very good at music, dance, poetry and painting. Being so sensitive, any rough attitude hurts her quite easily, and it is common to see her crying. Sometimes she seems to be lying, but it is her imagination which makes her see things in an unreal context. Instead of repressing her, it is better to encourage her in writing or painting.

It will not be easy for Drew to adapt to the demands of school, but if she feels the love of her teachers, this will help her to fulfill her duties. Her behavior is very changeable, and sometimes it is contradictory. The little fish changes its course again and again, sometimes in enthusiasm for something new, but sometimes in order to avoid reality. Drew is very affectionate, and she will give love to all the people around her. She loves life itself, and she feels compassion for all human beings. Her parents must understand this to avoid hurting her sensitive feelings. While an adolescent, she will be very romantic. Her first loving experiences will be crucial, as they could mark her behavior in the future. If these experiences are not very positive, this child could have deep fears and insecurities. Parents should not laugh at her; on the contrary, they must support her. She is easily influenced; almost anyone can convince her to do something. She is easily deluded. She tries to escape whenever she gets hurt or feels fear, and may sleep a lot when this happens. Parents must not worry about this because the only certainty in her destiny is change. Children of Pisces need huge amounts of love and then they can face life and make their dreams come true.

Gemini Rising Sign:

If there is no other astrological indication against it, Drew will be tall and thin, with long arms and legs. She will have electric movements and an uneasy look in her eyes. She will remain childlike all her life, always looking younger than she really is. Drew will be very curious and will always be willing to communicate, which is why she will learn to talk and walk quite fast. She will also be restless and will not be able to stay in one place too long. She can get bored quite easily and will always try to find new things to enjoy. Her great intelligence allows her to escape from every kind of control, and also gives her a great talent to entertain when she is with people. Drew will be talking with adults very early as well as with children of her own age. She will have no inhibitions about talking. If Drew shows a precocious inclination for literature, parents should help her write and bring out her fantasies. If her Sun (as shown above) is located in Cancer or Pisces, it is likely that she will be very easily influenced by and dependent on those around her. That is why parents must always keep an eye on her friends (even as an adult!). She will be able to undertake two or more tasks at the same time. Most likely she will do the same in her love life!

Her childhood is ruled by Mercury, and its influence on her intellect is powerful. Usually the place where she lives will be very stimulating. Her family will be involved in many changes, and it is probable that this family will be connected with the public, or will be a well-known family. It is possible that Drew will do some traveling as a child which may strengthen her tendency to be a journalist. She will be very good at languages, and should be encouraged to study one of them in early years. Her relationship with her brothers and sisters will be very important because she will look for an ally among them. If she does not have brothers or sisters, she will do it with friends. Mercury's beam works as an incentive for her communication and for trading; that is why you should not worry if you see her selling things at school.

Maternal figure: emotions, feelings, capacity to love and share.

Moon in Cancer:

Her emotions will be intense and she will always love staying in touch with her family. She will enjoy playing the role of a parent and playing dress-up in grown-up clothes. As an adult, Drew will be very sensitive to the needs of others and will develop strong protective instincts. Her feelings will be more powerful than logical reasoning, and she may be very attached to things with sentimental value. She will be very sensitive to the emotions of the people around her and will sometimes even change her mood in response to them.

Her mother will be very important because Drew needs a lot of love and tenderness from her to feel secure. To the extent that Drew feels protected and cared for while growing up, in adulthood she will worry about her family and take care of her parents and siblings. There will be a psychic bond between mother and daughter, which will give them the ability to know about each other, no matter how far apart they are. It is very important to respect her sensitivity and avoid exposing her to conflict and violence, because these will be imprinted in her subconscious and may generate future fears. To refresh her emotions and lighten the negative burdens, contact with nature will be the best help for her, especially places with water.

Moon in 2nd house:

Drew will have a great need for emotional security, which will be evident by her desire to possess things. She will hold on to things for a long time, and it will not be easy for her to let go of them. If Drew is raised in a positive and secure way, she could be generous and a bit of a spendthrift; otherwise she will be selfish and possessive. In her social relationships, she can be very demanding. Her future financial situation may suffer from fluctuations or instability; Drew could make a living working with the public, especially with women.

Moon Conjunction Saturn:

Drew can be very shy, reserved, and insecure about her feelings. She will need to receive a lot of love, especially from her mother, and she may experience difficulty expressing herself. Drew will be very disciplined and obedient. She will have a mature and responsible attitude even when she is very young.

Venus in Pisces:

Drew will be romantic and possess a tender heart. She will idolize each person she loves and can be easily deceived. Her fantasy world will be vast and she will probably look for an impossibly perfect love. She will be very kind, sweet, and understanding of others. Drew will always be ready to sacrifice herself and give everything for love. She will develop a strong intuition and she will be able to feel beyond her physical senses. Emotions give meaning to her life and she would never exchange them for anything material, but Drew may depend too much on her feelings. Her great imagination and inspiration suits her to an artistic profession. Drew will be compassionate with any human being who is suffering, and will be deeply moved when in contact with the beauty of nature.

Venus in 11th house:

Drew will have a variety of friends. She will be successful working or collaborating with a club or a philanthropic institution. Drew will tend to be very idealistic and will dream of a better world; her best friends will be bohemian and will show artistic sensitivity. Drew will probably marry a person involved with the arts. She will be very sociable and will enjoy the company of others.

Venus Conjunction Jupiter:

Drew will be tender, generous, and very sociable. She will have a magnetic affect on people, and will receive help and cooperation with the things she needs. Drew will be a lucky person and will secure a good financial and economical situation, which will give her a comfortable and happy life. Drew will like to share and will always be ready to help everybody. She will receive much love as a child, and this will enable her to see the positive side of things. Drew can be a bit lazy and will be over-protected. Parents must not treat her dietary habits carelessly, because she can be inclined to excesses, especially of sweet things.

Jupiter in Pisces:

Drew will be very helpful and will feel naturally inclined to help others. She will develop sensitivity for people who suffer and for animals; her great compassion can help make her a good doctor, nurse, or veterinarian. Drew will be very kind, warm, and perceptive. In spite of possibly being very popular, she will always be looking for calm, quiet places. Drew will have many fantasies, and may have problems facing the world the way it is.

Jupiter in 11th house:

Drew will be very sociable and she will be attracted to the pleasures of life. Drew will know many people and will have many friends who will be useful to her. She will like participating in organizations, groups, clubs, or religious affiliations. Probably Drew will have a big family, and she will love them very much. Her goals will not be difficult to reach, and this can make her a bit lazy.

Neptune in 7th house:

Drew could be very vulnerable to the influence of others; it will be very important for her to choose her lover objectively and rationally. It is probable that neither of them will see the other the way they really are, which could lead to disappointment. Platonic love will be the main characteristic of her matrimonial union. When signing any contract or forming any association, Drew should be very careful to analyze the details and always read the small print.

 Chapter 3 *****

Paternal figure: authority, power, capacity to assume responsibilities and to defend oneself in life.

Sun in 10th house:

Drew will be very ambitious; she will aspire to a high position in life and she will control her own destiny. Drew was born not to follow others, but to direct her own steps, and will show difficulty and rebelliousness in following any kind of authority. The relationship with her father is very important for her, and in a way, will determine her future ambitions. Her father will be well known in social life, but this does not mean that Drew will follow in her father's footsteps. From him Drew will learn to fight for her own goals, to act with decision and self-confidence, and to be loyal to her own principles. This astrological position will bring material success, social recognition, and a higher status in Drew's life. Her great energy and pride will make her an invincible person.

Sun Trine Uranus:

Drew will be very independent and creative. Her ideas are oriented to the future; she will work to renew everything around her in a constructive and positive way. Drew will be the kind of leader who is popular, but at the same time criticized by people who do not understand her. Though good manners do not characterize her, Drew will transmit her enthusiasm and joy to people. She will have a strong intuition which will allow her to see beyond the apparent reality. She will learn from her father the ability to express herself with authority and confidence in her own ideals.

Saturn in Cancer:

Possibly Drew may receive an inadequate amount of love during her childhood, or maybe her family is a bit unsettled, and she will feel inhibited about showing love and emotions. In any case, Drew will always have a great sense of responsibility towards her family. She can be hypersensitive, feeling hurt quite easily, and reacting by seeking solitude for security and protection. Basically, Drew needs emotional security, and it is very important for her to receive large amounts of affection from both parents. Otherwise, as an adult, she will be a very shy, melancholy, and lonely person, and will have great difficulty understanding people.

Saturn in 2nd house:

Drew can be raised in a family where everybody is concerned about money or experiencing financial problems. As a result, Drew will be very much concerned with these matters. She will be cautious and will always be trying to save money, because she will be afraid of being without it. This astrological position does not mean that Drew will not be able to earn money, but that she will do it slowly and gradually. Drew must work hard and persistently to reach her goals; she will have to overcome her anxieties. Drew can earn money from real estate investments.

Saturn Square Pluto:

Drew can seem to be domineering and very aggressive, but this will just be her way of hiding her own insecurities. Drew will resist strongly any change in her life. She will show great strength, but also inflexibility and willfulness at the same time. Drew must learn to be more considerate of others; she must try to avoid dominating everybody at every moment; and she should show her feelings more freely without the fear of seeming weak.

Mars in Capricorn:

Drew will have many ambitions and will work very hard to achieve them. She will be more practical than idealistic, and will prefer to work for tangible results. In addition, she will be disciplined and have a strong sense of responsibility. Drew must learn to respect people for reasons other than professional achievements or material gains. She will not act without thinking first, and will know how to direct her energies effectively. There will be little communication with her father. This will be painful for Drew, and will make her more mature than other children. She will know from the very beginning what she wants to do in her life, and will start to work very early to reach those goals. Her seriousness and determination can cause a lack of a sense of humor and spontaneity; she can also have difficulty expressing her emotions freely. Drew will defend her home tenaciously and, although she will not show it, she will be very possessive and jealous around the people who have a place in her heart.

Mars in 9th house

Drew will be independent, enthusiastic, and very curious. Her restless mind will motivate her to further her education and to achieve the goals she sets for herself. It is likely that Drew will have conflicts with or completely reject her religion, as she will rebel against its demands and will have her own ideas about God. If this idea of God becomes very developed, Drew has the potential to be a religious fanatic. Her restless mind will make her plan many trips around the world.

Mars Sextile Jupiter:

Drew will be an enthusiastic and optimistic person with excellent leadership ability. Drew will be well-known for her loyalty, pride, confidence, and her liberal spirit. She will always be protective of her friends and family, and will have a sound sense of justice. She will be fond of sports, as well as politics and trips. She will probably be in a very good financial situation all her life and will live very comfortably. Drew will be a real idealist as she will be totally sure of her own beliefs.

Uranus in 6th house:

Drew will need to work in a place where she is able to organize her own time. Drew will tend to overwork, which could be detrimental to her health. It will be difficult for her to accept any authority but her own; Drew will become impatient and irritable when things don't go her way. She will have great ability and interest in the sciences; she will also have a good sense of timing. Drew will have to learn to control her impatience or she will be constantly changing jobs.

Pluto in 5th house:

Drew will like to run risks, emotionally or financially. Her emotions will be deep and very complex; she will not be an easy person to please. Her sex life will also be active; it will be very important for her not to be raised surrounded by taboos and prohibitions. She will tend to be very possessive of the people she loves and it is probable that she may be involved in some unsavory situations, perhaps due to her jealousy. Drew will like gambling, even as an adult, but she should exercise moderation or her financial stability could be compromised.

 Chapter 4 *****

Mentality: intelligence, studies and capacity for communication.

Mercury in Aquarius:

Drew has a discriminating mind, with a great capacity to be original, creative, and progressive. She will cling stubbornly to her own ideas and will not respond to impositions or orders from others. Drew will be very curious, intuitive, and a good observer. Her sharp mind will make her creative and clear about her opinions; she will rarely be dominated by her emotions when speaking. She will have a great intelligence which will allow her to become familiar with any subject quite rapidly or at least until she gets bored with it. Her communication will be open, spontaneous, without restraint or prejudice. Drew will love to talk with everybody, especially those who attract her attention or curiosity. Though Drew seems to be flexible, she will not change her mind and will not be easily influenced. Drew will not worry about formalities, tradition, or social acceptance. Her ideas are future-oriented and freedom-loving. Parents and friends may sometimes think she is an eccentric or may not understand her at all; the reality is that Drew lives far beyond the present.

Mercury in 9th house:

Education will be a very important aspect of Drew's life. She will be interested in law, medicine, philosophy, religion, and everything related to old and exotic cultures. She will probably travel frequently and will also learn several languages. Drew could excel as a teacher, historian, or anthropologist. Also, she will be very intuitive and a visionary, though sometimes she could be a bit dogmatic. In spite of her strong convictions, Drew will encounter situations which cause her to question beliefs and will transform her way of thinking.

Mercury Trine Pluto:

Drew will be a very sharp, analytical, and individualistic person. She will show great powers of concentration, as well as a deep comprehension of abstract and philosophical subjects. Most likely Drew will have a strong influence on others due to her self-confidence and courage. Drew will know her career choice in childhood and will put all her energies into working on her professional development. She will probably study something to do with human nature, like psychology, psychiatry, or medicine in general.

Mercury Sextile Neptune:

Drew will have a great imagination and inspiration; she will be awed in the presence of beauty and will show artistic talents, especially with music and painting. Drew will be a very idealistic person; she will be always dreaming of a better world and will be remarkably sensitive to others' emotions. Nevertheless, her feet will be on the ground. Drew will not have much mental discipline, which will make it difficult for her to study logical sciences such as mathematics. She will excel in subjects in which she can use her creativity and imagination.

Cancer on 3rd house cusp:

Drew will have a very rich imagination and many fantasies. Her reasoning will never be totally cold or detached from her emotions; on the contrary, her heart will guide her mind, and most of her decisions will be intuitive. Most likely she will not decide early on what her career will be. She will probably change her mind many times, but she will persevere once she identifies the right choice. Drew must receive a lot of support and emotional stimulation to study, because she may not apply herself without encouragement. Her imagination will make her perfect for creative jobs and she could be an artist or an inventor.

 Chapter 5 *****

Destiny: vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Aquarius MC

Drew's destiny is linked to the New Age of Aquarius. Her thoughts and ideas will be very unusual and will help to change the world. Regardless of what profession she chooses, her style will be very original and her ideas will be criticized for being non-traditional. Drew will be very interested in future-oriented inventions: space voyages, electronics, communication systems, etc. Her great creativity will make her excel in any artistic career she chooses. If she shows a tendency to write, it will probably be science fiction. Drew will travel a lot and will feel fulfilled in places far away from her birthplace. Her powerful intuition will guide her to the success she seeks. Drew will not easily tolerate working for others; she will be extremely independent and will not submit to a time-table or a routine. If her job becomes restrictive, she will find another.

Her career choice could be one of the following professions: electronics, space engineer, aviation, computers, artist, writer, musician, singer, composer, speaker, astrologer, etc., or any other creative profession which does not bear a specific label.

Drew's home will be very unconventional. Everybody will live as they think they should. One of her parents may compete with her, while the other one could be her friend. Generally, they will not interfere with the choice of Drew's profession, and in case they did, she would not take them seriously. Individuals born under the sign of Aquarius will have a strong influence on her destiny.

 Chapter 6 *****

Health: probable physical problems and recommendations for diet and nutrition.

Sun in Pisces:

Pisces rules the feet, including the fingers, the ligaments, the muscles, the lymphatic system, and the kingdom of the human psyche. Drew will be very receptive and sensitive. Most of her physical problems will originate with her emotional afflictions, which will make diagnosing her illnesses very hard, sometimes resulting in incorrect conclusions. She will be very impressionable and will have to avoid being with negative or unbalanced people. She will not pay much attention to diets and treatments. Her lazy attitude plus her tendency to retain liquids in the body can easily cause her to be overweight. Drew is vulnerable to addictions, so she will have to avoid tranquilizers, alcohol, and should sleep only when necessary.

In order to be healthy, Drew will have to consider the following advice: she will have to avoid sleeping too much to escape from her problems; she will have to have an artistic or creative outlet; she will have to start a macrobiotic or vegetarian diet and be constant with it, avoiding highly salted food and perhaps using a non-sodium salt; she will have to seek inner harmony and peace, always trying to be with positive people, being involved with spiritual groups or practicing Yoga and meditation and prayer; she will have to avoid self-medication; she will have to be in close contact with nature, especially with water; she will have to express her emotions and anxieties; she will have to avoid drinking alcohol and smoking; she will have to be physically active and perform mental control exercises to eradicate negative thoughts and suggestions.

Saturn in Cancer:

This astrological position could bring a loss of appetite due to emotional problems, a low level of hydrochloric acid causing poor digestion, below normal gastric secretions, and poor assimilation of Vitamin B-12. Generally, Drew will not assimilate all the nutritive substances from what she eats, which could make her weak and possibly anemic.

Libra on 6th house cusp:

The short term problems related to Drew's health could originate from excessive sugar and starches in the diet and by the lack of Vitamins E and P, copper, chromium, and niacin. The most common diseases will be: lumbago, suppression of urine, kidney stones or other problems with the kidneys, retention of liquids, etc.

In order to prevent these diseases, Drew should include these elements in her diet: mushrooms, watercress, carrots, alfalfa, soy and its products, avocado, peach, sunflower seeds, brown rice, wheat germ, raisins, peanut butter, etc. She should avoid sweet things and she should drink large amounts of pure mineral water.

The long term problems related to Drew's health could originate from the lack of amino acids, Vitamin B-12, hydrochloric acid, adrenalin, Vitamin F, cobalt, iron, and phosphorus. This could bring headaches, neuralgia, fatigue, vertigo, insomnia, toothache, infections in the ears, eye problems, etc.

It would be advisable for her to add the following elements to her diet: peas, spinach, asparagus, beet, celery, endives, potato, lettuce, carrots, tomato, onion, poultry, and especially fish. It would be even better for her to have a daily physical activity.

Uranus in 6th house:

Drew could have problems with the nervous responses of the body, suffering palpitations, spasms, nervousness; she could also suffer on account of unconscious physical reactions. Drew must control her nervous tension, perhaps through meditation or relaxation exercises. Her health problems will appear suddenly, almost unexpectedly.

 Chapter 7 *****

Generational influence: ideas and feelings common to your child's age group.

Uranus in Scorpio:

Drew belongs to a generation of people who will break many taboos about sex, life and death, and other matters of a personal nature. She will defend her own ideas almost fanatically and will become aggressive when challenged. She will be very vigorous, dynamic, and secure in her self-expression, though she will need to learn to be more flexible. Her intuition will be powerful; many inventions and discoveries will characterize her era, especially in fields like medicine and metaphysics.

Neptune in Sagittarius:

Drew's generation will seek to discover new religious and philosophical values. They will inquire deeply into the different meanings of life. It is also probable that during this period many laws and educational programs will be changed. As a part of this generation, Drew will be very interested in being a member of reform groups; she will be inclined towards new ideas, will search for a universal religion, and will get to know different cultures. It is also probable that she could meet false prophets, but her strong intuition will tell her who is who.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

Drew will have great creative and artistic ability. Also, she will fight against injustice and will try to reform the legislative system. Her intuition will be powerful and will compel her to study and uncover the secrets of nature. Most likely, her ideas about freedom or the way she will use her mystic knowledge will not be totally understood; however, her interest in this matter will not vanish.

Pluto in Libra:

Drew's generation will be concerned about the development of human relationships and their communications. They will not be very selfish and will understand the importance of listening to others, always seeking balance and harmony between different points of view. They will be interested in psychology and sociology, and will propose new styles of association, in business as well as in personal relationships, trying to find better understanding and happiness. Their policies will lead to peace treaties between different countries, making possible the avoidance of the arms race or political power struggles. As a part of this group, Drew will show a great love of beauty and harmony; she will have a strong sense of justice and well- developed social instincts.
